

JLARC Study Topic Selection Subcommittee Meeting
October 17, 2022 – MINUTES

JLARC Subcommittee Members Present:

Senator Jeremy S. McPike, Chair; Senator Janet Howell; Senator Mamie E. Locke; Delegate Terry L. Austin; Delegate Kenneth R. Plum; and Delegate Tony Wilt.

Chairman McPike opened the meeting at 9:00 a.m.

Mr. Hal Greer, JLARC's staff Director, welcomed the subcommittee members and gave an overview of the meeting agenda. Mr. Greer then introduced Mr. Justin Brown, who presented the proposed study resolutions for 2023.

Through Mr. Brown's presentation, there were questions and discussion among subcommittee members on the details and priority of the resolutions and which ones to direct JLARC to complete in 2023. The studies chosen for 2023 were: (1) K-12 teacher pipeline, (2) public safety officer enhanced retirement benefits, (3) self-sufficiency & child care, (4) public defenders, court-appointed, & commonwealth's attorneys, (5) state psychiatric hospitals, and (6) GO Virginia. At the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Greer stated that these topics will be presented at the JLARC meeting on Monday, November 7, 2022.
